

UPCOMING STUDY ON LIVING WITH A LIFE-LIMITING ILLNESS: ACCESS TO CARE AND RELATED EXPERIENCES

PARTICIPATE IN STATISTICS CANADA'S NEW NATIONAL STUDY: Living with a Life-limiting Illness: Access to Care and Related Experiences.

This study aims to gather insights on the experiences of individuals with life-limiting illnesses and their unpaid caregivers, focusing on their access to care and support services.

Key aspects of the study include:

- Exploring experiences and satisfaction: Understanding how well current care services meet physical, psychological, social and spiritual needs.
- Identifying gaps and barriers: Your feedback will help identify critical areas where care services can be improved.

Why your participation matters

The findings from this study may assist healthcare organizations and providers in enhancing the development, planning and delivery of high-quality care for Canadians living with life-limiting illnesses and their unpaid caregivers.

Your participation will help contribute to our understanding of your experiences and access to care in Canada.

Although voluntary, your participation is important so that the information collected is as accurate and complete as possible.

Statistics Canada values your unique experiences and input!

For inquiries related to the study on Living with a Life-limiting Illness: Access to Care and Related Experiences contact us at:
statcan.SupportiveCare-Soinsdesoutien.statcan@statcan.gc.ca.

How to participate:

To access the questionnaire and share your experiences,

please click here or use the following address:

www.statcan.gc.ca/en/survey/household/5416

Your participation is secure

All information is collected under the authority of the Statistics Act, which ensures your data is kept confidential and used solely for this study.

NEED ASSISTANCE?

For any technical help or inquiries related to the study:

Phone: 1-877-949-9492
(TTY: 1-800-363-7629)

Email: infostats@statcan.gc.ca

Statistics
Canada Statistique
Canada

Thank you for sharing your experience!

Canada