HAVE YOU EXPORTED OR IMPORTED SERVICES?

You have exported services if during the year you have charged a foreign client for any service that you provided and you have imported services if you purchased any services from a foreign provider.

Commercial services definition

Commercial services include, in part the following services: management, telecommunication, financial, insurance, computer, research and development, professional, education, health, audiovisual, cultural services and rights, licenses and royalties.

Excluded from this survey: goods, transportation, travel, interest or profits and loss.

This survey does not only target businesses in the service sector but those in all activity sectors (resources extraction and manufacturing for example).

Reporting entity

Please only include transactions conducted by the Canadian entity whose legal name appears above. Do not include transactions conducted by foreign related parties of the Canadian entity (its parent companies, branches and subsidiaries) with other foreign entities or with Canadian unrelated parties. If the Canadian entity whose legal name appears above is at the head of a business consolidation, please report all international transactions conducted by businesses that are part of the consolidation and that reside in Canada.

Purpose of the survey

The data are required for the compilation of Canada's Balance of International Payments and the Gross Domestic Product. Such statistics are used as a major input in the conduct of monetary and exchange rate policies. Other uses of these data include the development and monitoring of international trade agreements and for business planning, marketing and institutional research.

Instructions on filling out the survey

Period covered: Please report for the calendar year 2007 or if not practicable, your nearest fiscal year ending

Day	Month	Year

Estimates: If a particular category of services or geographic distribution is not readily available, please estimate.

Coverage: Please report all external service transactions including those financed by government in Canada (for example, by CIDA) or by other Canadian or international organizations (as World Bank). You have to include services transacted over the Internet.

Related parties: You are asked to report transboundary trade with foreign related parties and with other foreign parties (not related). Foreign related parties are either foreign entities that have the ability to exercise significant influence on the Canadian unit or either foreign entities in which the Canadian entity have the ability to exercise significant influence. In general, there is significant influence when an entity owns 10% or more of the ordinary shares or voting power of another entity (for an incorporated enterprise) or the equivalent (for an unincorporated enterprise). Foreign related entities include parent companies, subsidiaries and branches. For more details, refer to C.I.C.A. accounting standards.

Definitions: Please see definitions of services on page 4, and yellow sheet showing geographical codes.

Note: When this questionnaire is accompanied by the questionnaire "Transactions between Canada and Other Countries" (BP-21), the items "Total Revenues" and "Total Expenses" on this report should correspond with lines 32 and 34 on the BP-21 form.

Reporting guide: A guide designed to assist you as you complete the 2007 Survey of International Transactions in Commercial Services is available upon request (see "Enquiries" for contact information).

Definitions and reference numbers

1. Telecommunications services (please note (i)(b))

Two groups of respondents are asked to report in this category:

- (i) Carriers and interconnect suppliers to the public: please report
- charges to/from abroad for the usage of facilities that teletransport client information,
 - related consulting and facilities management.

(ii) Non-telecommunications companies using own facilities or the private facilities of a related party: please report explicit or implicit charges that cover the use and management of these facilities in teletransporting client information to/from abroad.

Activities cover basic telecommunications as well as enhanced or value added services (as Email, EDI, teleconferencing, and paging). Excludes the value of subject matter teletransported (see #6).

2. Construction services supplied directly from or to Canada

Covers erection of structures, structural repairs, installation, refurbishing, special trades, demolition and site work. Please include any equipment rentals with operator.

Note: Where construction activity is an indistinct part of a turnkey project, please make a general estimate of the construction portion. Otherwise, assign here or to #22 (architectural and engineering services) according to where you believe the major value lies.

3. Insurance

Covers (a) direct insurance claims paid to Canadian policy holders by insurers not registered in Canada. While we recognize that these claims are normally settled directly between the insured and the insurance company, we ask the brokers to estimate the amount of claims paid during the year. (b) direct insurance premiums paid by Canadian policy holders to insurers not registered in Canada. Reinsurance premiums and claims should not be reported, as they are included in reports from the ceding and assuming insurance companies. Please report commission revenues and expenses for insurance and reinsurance at # 14.

4. Financial services other than insurance

Covers bank or trust company service charges (including custodial fees) not covered in interest amounts; loan guarantee fees; non-interest charges for participation/administration of retail credit or debit cards; fees for financial advisory services including merger/acquisition charges, excluding accounting, tax planning (see #16) or associated legal charges (see #15).

Note: fees and commissions on securities (such as broking, placement of issues, securities trading) are excluded from this survey, as are commissions on insurance transactions.

5. Computer services

Covers design, engineering and management of computer systems (exclusive of the value of hardware). Covers the development and production of original software (including operating software and internet software), but excludes the export/import of prepackaged software units for general commercial or personal use (see #10). Computer processing charges as well as equipment maintenance and repair should be reported here. This category also includes consulting and training related to the above (for general training see #27). Royalties on software and on the use of software see #30 and #31.

6. Information services

Covers on-line information retrieval services, including database services (the development of subject matter through to storage and dissemination) and computer assisted document searches and retrievals. Includes operations of internet service providers and other services which directly enable or support the provision of internet services. Also covers news agency services (as syndicated reporting services to the media). Database charges not separable from related telecommunications charges should be included here, unless the latter are thought to predominate, in which case please report under #1.

7. to 13. Headnote about royalties and licences

Items #7 to #13 below, refer to royalties or fees for the use of rights. Sales position of the rights themselves should be specified separately under #32 "Other Services". Further, the following items should be excluded: patent or trademark registration, or maintenance fees, and distribution rights specified at #28, #29 and #30.

7. Royalties and licences: Patents and industrial designs

Covers royalty or licence fees for the use of patents, industrial designs, industrial know-how or manufacturing rights. Includes payments for the use of unpatented industrial processes.

8. Royalties and licences: Trademarks

Covers royalties or fees for the use of trademarks, that is, words, symbols, designs or combinations thereof which distinguish the holder's products or services from those of another provider.

9. Royalties and licences: Franchises

Covers contractual privileges granted by an individual or corporation to another, permitting the sale of a product or service in a specified area and/or manner.

10. Royalties and licences: Pre-packaged (not customized) software sales

Covers sales of exported or imported units of general-use software for automatic data processing machines, including that of a kind sold at retail or for commercial applications. These products may be sent in physical or internet form. The dollar value reported here should include royalties and licence fees for multiple use as well as license extensions for copies already provided to clients.

11. Royalties and licences: Computer software except on pre-packaged sales

Covers royalties, licences or other fees for the right to replicate, distribute or otherwise use software (whether or not over the internet).

12. Royalties and licences: Copyrights and related rights, except computer software

Covers royalties, licences fees for the use of artistic, literary, dramatic or musical originals. Distribution rights for performances and audio-visual productions for a limited time and/or a limited area should be reported at #28, #29 or #30. Royalties, licenses or other fees for the right to use computer programs are reported in #10 or in #11.

13. Other royalties

Include all other royalties not covered in lines 7 through 12. Please specify the type of royalties reported using the "Comments" section at the bottom of Schedule "A" and "B" and report the amounts on line 13. For example, in the case of royalties for the exclusive use of natural resources, report the amounts on line 13 and specify that it is of this type of royalties in the "Comments" section.

14. Non-financial commissions and merchanting:

Non-financial commissions: Covers commissions on goods and service transactions between (i) resident merchants, commodity brokers, dealers, manufacturers' sales branches and commission agents and (ii) non-residents. Includes auction commissions. Excluded are commissions already recorded in the price of goods imported and exported through Customs, and financial service commissions (whether involving insurance, credit, stock or bond issues).

Merchanting: Covers process by which a good is purchased by a Canadian resident from a non-resident and then subsequently resold to another non-resident; during the process, the good does not enter or leave Canada. The difference between the value of goods when acquired and the value of goods when resold is defined as the merchanting services.

15. Legal services

Covers legal advisory and representational services in any law, judicial and statutory procedures, and the drawing up of legal instruments or documentation.

16. Accounting services

Covers the recording of business and other accounts, including reviews and audits, book-keeping and preparation of related statements and returns. Includes corporate tax planning and consulting, and preparation of tax documents.

17. Business management, consulting, and public relations services

Covers business management consulting as well as public relations services, typically transacted with unrelated parties. Certain specialized management consulting however, should be reported with the service concerned: telecommunications (#1); computer and information services (#5 and #6); legal services (#15); accounting (#16); advertising (#20); architectural, engineering/construction (#22); environmental (#25); property management services (#26); education/training (#27).

18. Other management and administrative services

Covers charges between related parties for managerial and administrative services rendered by an individual or corporation and which cannot be allocated to another category on this survey.

19. Equipment rentals

Excepting construction equipment with operator, covers rentals with and without operator of: light or heavy machinery and tools, drilling rigs and supply vessels, rail or road/off-road vehicles, aircraft (short term leases). Also includes rental of containers; office machinery and equipment including computers; rentals of household and personal goods. Excludes financial leases, leases of telecommunication lines, leasing of real estate, car rentals to foreign travellers, and shipping charters.

20. Advertising and related services

Covers the design, creation and marketing of advertisements by advertising agencies; placing advertisements in newspapers, journals, radio, TV and other media, including the purchase and sale of advertising space; advertising on the internet or which otherwise supports E-commerce; participation in trade fairs and other promotional outlays, including exhibition services, telemarketing or delivery services. Also covered are market research services and public opinion polling. Call center telemarketing services are covered here. Call center customer assistance services and other call center services are reported at #32.

21. Research and development

Covers charges related to systematic investigations through experiment or analysis to achieve a scientific or commercial advance for or through the creation of new or significantly improved products or processes. R & D extends to the social sciences and humanities but excludes market research (see #20) and technical studies (see #23).

22. Architectural and engineering services

Covers design or consulting, design/pre-design, and contract supervision services; also integrated services but please see Note to #2. Covers urban planning and landscape architectural services, including the export or import of services for the management of projects after completion.

23. Scientific and technical services

Covers geological and geophysical services; mineral exploration and prospecting work; surveying and mapping services of or from land, sea and above-surface, including weather services; services of testing, analysis, inspection or certification of any materials or products. Medical and dental laboratory services are excluded here (please specify at #32).

24. Drilling services

Covers drilling and field services including maintenance and installation, but not equipment rentals (see #19) for sale. Services related to discovery, that is, mineral exploration and exploration, as well as geological services are reported at #23.

25. Environmental services

Covers sanitation services; waste storage, treatment, destruction; decontamination, cleanup/containment and pollution control; environmental consulting, covering biological and ecological consulting, environmental audits, impact and site assessments.

26. Real estate services

Covers sales commissions, fees/contracts for the management of properties, including hotels, resorts.

27. Education, training, staff development

Covers fees for employee training and development; also covers such services to the educational market as testing, consulting and the development and delivery/adaptation of course materials and systems. Educational equipment sales and replications of course material for general sale are excluded. Fees incurred for attending full time university and college programs are beyond the scope of this survey and should not be included here.

28. Performing arts

Cover fees to producers, directors, actors, crew and others engaged in staging theatrical and musical events, circus entertainment and other performances, whether for profit or not. Covers fees for distribution rights for the media (as TV, radio) for such productions.

29. Other audio-visual services - films and videos

Covers receipts and payments for the production of films and videos; includes receipts or payments for post-production, motion picture laboratory, rentals and distribution rights sold to the media for a limited number of showings in specified areas. Excluded here are copies for general or personal use of films, videos, programs, texts or musical compositions, together with software replications of such materials for retail sale.

30. Other audio-visual services - other

Covers receipts and payments for the production of programs for broadcast (live or taped), and musical recordings; includes receipts or payments for rentals and distribution rights sold to the media for a limited number of showings in specified areas. Excluded here are copies for general or personal use of films, videos, programs, texts or musical compositions, together with software replications of such materials for retail sale.

31. Contract production abroad

If you pay a producer abroad to produce a good which you then sell abroad (i.e. no export back to Canada), please report the revenue you receive, and the production expenses which the foreign producer bills you. (The producer may buy materials outside Canada on your behalf and bill for the whole cost, or you may export your own materials or master copy and pay only the transformation or reproduction charge). In the reverse situation, i.e. you are the contract producer, please report revenue from foreign parties who engage your services, and at #32 specify the value of the product shipped within Canada.

32. Other services

A variety of other services are included here, for example, interior, product and package design services, personnel, translation, and security services. Call center telemarketing services are reported at #20. Call center customer assistance services and other call center services are covered here. Please specify international delivery revenues and expenses if you are a provider of courier services. Please identify the contents of your amount in line 32 by using space in the Comments section at the bottom of Schedule "A" and/or "B".
