PURPOSE OF THE SURVEY

To obtain information on the supply of and demand for energy in Canada. This information serves as an important indicator of Canadian economic performance, is used by all levels of government in establishing informed policies in the energy area and, in the case of public utilities, is used by governmental agencies to fulfil their regulatory responsibilities. The private sector likewise uses this information in the corporate decision-making process.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Statistics Canada is prohibited by law from publishing any statistics which would divulge information obtained from this survey that relates to any identifiable business, without the previous written consent of that business. The data reported will be treated in strict confidence, used for statistical purposes and published in aggregate form only. The confidentiality provisions of the Statistics Act are not affected by either the Access to Information Act or any other legislation.

DATA SHARING AGREEMENTS

To reduce response burden and to ensure uniform statistics, Statistics Canada has entered into agreements with various agencies and government departments for the joint collection and sharing of data. The information provided in this survey pertaining to individual respondents cannot be divulged, in any way, by the parties with which Statistics Canada has agreements. An agreement exists under Section 11 of the Statistics Act to share information with the statistical agencies of Nova Scotia, Québec, Saskatchewan, and Alberta regarding business establishments located or operating in their respective jurisdictions. These organizations have been established under provincial legislation authorizing them to collect this information on their own or jointly with Statistics Canada. The provincial legislation also provides the same confidentiality protection and outlines similar penalties for disclosure of confidential information as the federal Statistics Act.

An agreement exists under Section 12 of the Statistics Act with Natural Resources Canada and Environment Canada to share the information collected by this survey.

Under section 12 of the Statistics Act you may refuse to share your information by writing to the Chief Statistician and returning your letter of objection along with the completed questionnaire in the enclosed return envelope.

Please specify the agency or association listed above from which data shall be withheld.

PLEASE REFER TO THE REPORTING INSTRUCTIONS BEFORE COMPLETING THIS REPORT.

A detailed description of the N.A.I.C.S. codes may be found in the North American Industry Classification Manual, Catalogue No. 12-501-XPE.

NOTE: Statistics compiled from this report are published in Statistics Canada Publication, "Energy Supply–Demand in Canada", Catalogue No. 57-003-XPB.
